Experience

Practicing attorney for over 28 years, focusing on education and personnel law. Nationally recognized expert on sexual harassment and sexual abuse in schools, and teacher tenure issues. California's leading expert on teacher termination litigation and employee supervision, evaluation, and discipline. Designer and author of SUCCEED with Communication, Supervision, Evaluation and Leadership, which produces excellence in management/employee communication, performance and evaluation. Expert consultant to former California Governor Pete Wilson on the reformation of teacher tenure laws. Chair of United States Department of Education Expert Panel on Safe, Disciplined and Drug-Free Schools.

1989 - Present Founder/President, McGrath Systems, Inc., Santa Barbara, California.

Founded a training and staff development company that specializes in providing legally based and principled workshops and video training systems to school district management, staff, and students, as well as public and private organizations. Has trained over 250,000 school district administrators and employees throughout the United States and Canada. The subject matter of the training includes employee performance, supervision, discipline and evaluation through the McGrath SUCCEED System and awareness and investigation of sexual harassment and misconduct in the school environment. Has created and produced 19 educational videos including Sexual Harassment: Minimize the Risk, widely acknowledged as “the best on the subject” by many education professionals.

1995 - 1996

Partner, Mullen & Henzell, Santa Barbara, California.

Focus on education and personnel law and labor negotiations. Represented both public and private organizations in the area of sexual harassment, including the investigation of sexual harassment complaints. Represented school districts in a broad range of education law matters, including the remediation and dismissal of incompetent teachers.

1989 - 1995

Principal, Law Offices of Mary Jo McGrath, Santa Barbara, California.

Cases involving general education law matters. Represented and counseled a variety of school districts in a broad range of education law issues, including personnel, labor relations, DFEH, ADA, collective bargaining, EERA, special education, student issues, open meetings law, conflict of interest, public records, retirement, and employee benefits matters, involving U.S. and California Constitutions, and federal and California statutes and common law.

1977 - 1989

Partner/Associate Attorney with Leading California Law Firms.

Partner and/or associate with the law firms of Littler, Mendelson, Fastiff and Tichy, Pettit & Martin and Richards, Watson & Girshon, focusing on education and employment law. Represented school districts and other public and private organizations in matters involving constitutional, statutory and common law issues involving employee layoff, discipline and termination, collective bargaining, EERA, wrongful termination, sexual harassment and abuse, employment and educational discrimination, student rights, special education, student sexual harassment, and general education law issues.
